PEKVVILLE.

Dr. S. H. Moon, of the Peckville Presbyterian church, was pleasantly surprised on Tuesday evening by a large number of the congregation and friends who went to his main street home at 8 o'clock and took complete possession of the domicile.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED.

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube.

HOW AN ARMY IS FED.

Problem of Food Supplies Solved in the Philippines. Harry Armstrong in Chicago Record. The chief commissary has no easy time of it. About 30,000 soldiers are fed three times a day and supplies must be kept up for the sustenance of the officers and the civil employes that the government hires.

THEATRICAL.

At the Academy. Last night the Shoa company gave a very fine presentation of a "Tale of Two Cities" at the Academy of Music. This afternoon the "Slaves of Sin" will be presented and tonight "The Belle."

Bon Ton Burlesquers.

The performances given by the Ideal Bon-Ton Burlesquers at the Gaiety yesterday were in the class entitled to designation as excellent. From start to finish the entertainment was well represented by Larry Smith and Eddie Shayne, who kept the audience in continuous laughter whenever they appeared on the stage.

TAYLOR NEWS.

Loan Exhibition of Willing Workers' Society is Opened—Funerals of a Day—Personal and Other Notes. The fair and loan exhibition of the Willing Workers society of the M. E. church opened last evening in Weber's rink under most auspicious circumstances.

THE SORROWS OF SATAN.

The story of the devil on earth is the theme of the startling dramatization of Marie Corelli's famous novel produced this season by William A. Brady. While the idea of the dramatization upon the earth is not entirely new, for Goethe has pictured it before, his character is absolutely original with Marie Corelli.

THE HIGHWAYMAN.

The scenes of "The Highwayman," to be presented at the Lyceum Monday night, are written in an atmosphere of wistful gloom, lonely country roads and national glories, when gentlemen at the beginning of the century comforted themselves with the philosophy that if hanging were a bad fate, starvation was worse, and therefore, resorted to robbery as a fine art when luck was against them.

EXCELLED BY NONE.

Among repertoire companies none stand higher in public estimation than Aubrey's Dramatic company. It contains the most talented people in the theatrical profession, including some clever specialty artists whose various "turns" are unequalled. The company presents a repertoire of successful dramas, comedies and farce-comedies that have held the boards in New York and other large cities.

HEARTS OF OAK.

The Lyceum will have on Tuesday, Dec. 12, a type of melodrama that is altogether too uncommon in these days in "Hearts of Oak," one of James A. Herne's earliest and best plays. In "Hearts of Oak" is a story of love and self-sacrifice plainly, yet eloquently told, and a spirit of homely heroism pervades the whole play.

OLD FORGE.

Mrs. Hannah Bennett, widow of the late George Bennett, died on Tuesday morning after an illness of about two months. She was born in Hamtown, Pittston township, on Jan. 10, 1825, and had she lived till January would have been 74 years old. Her parents were among the earliest settlers of the Wyoming valley and she has always lived in this vicinity.

ONIONS, POTATOES, BEEF AND BACON TO THE STOREHOUSE.

The variety of things in these cargoes would suffice to stock a big grocery. The list includes everything from soap, candies, salt, salmon, beans, flour and canned goods to pins, shoestrings and matches. All the wants of the man away from home are provided for, and all at first cost to the government. The supply department is set down on the order of work. Address B. W., this office.

CAPTAIN KRAUTHOFF HAS CHARGE OF THE "ISSUES" DEPARTMENT OF THE COMMISSARY.

It is his duty to keep stock of his supplies, "checking in" all the things that come from the ship and "checking out" those things which are taken away on requisition and which go to the hands of the soldiers. His clerks enter the invoices in one book and the requisitions in another, while a sergeant with a half-dozen men takes care of the warehouses. There are two of these buildings, and when the army increases there will be a third. These structures have a floor space of 60,000 square feet each, and are more than twenty feet in height. The boxes of provisions are piled up in high walls with narrow aisles running between them.

THE COMPANY ARE E. P. SULLIVAN, THOMAS M. HUNTER, NAT JONES, JAMES HORNE, IDA HAMILTON, ELLIOT BENSING, MARIE ADAIR and MARGARET CECIL.

Special feature of the presentation will be the singing of some good music by the "Hearts of Oak" quartette.
